GRIZZLY BOYS ARE HOME

Sonoma Extends Hearty Greeting To Its Contingent In Fine Unit.

The Sonoma members of California's beloved Grizzilies arrived home with the unit and since being mustered out from the Presido have visited Sonoma relatives and friends all of whom gave them hearty greeting, Jack Canevari, Fulton Dal Porto, Morris Cooper and Wm. Baines, son of James Baines, were in the famous contingent and are all looking fine after their trip over seas.

Byron Weaver of the 91st is also home and is with his folks the Frank Weavers of El Verano. E. Debats is also home.

PROMINENT LAKEVILLE MAN PASSES AWAY

John W. Dowd, one of the widely known residents of the county, died at 4:39 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Dowd home ranch at Lakeville from pneumonia, which followed an attack of influenza. He had been ill for three weeks and was convalescent when a few days ago he suffered a relapse. For years he managed the large Dowd ranch at Lakeville.

YOUNG OFFICER OF BRITISH ARMY WEDS IN INDIA

The Port of Spain Gazette announces the marraige at Sivola, India of Lieutenant Eugene Nivet, Duke of Cornwall's Light Infantry to Gladys, daughter of the late Captain Swift. The young officer is a newphew of Chas. Nivet of "Arragh-na Pogue" El Verano, and met his bride while in India with the army. The young people were married on the 28th of September.

R. Q Wickham was in town from the State Home Monday morning. Mr. Wickham is secretary to the superintendent and has but recently returned from Sacramento where he went for a little recreation. The state capitol is a favorite old stamping ground of R. Q., for it is there that he served many terms with the Legislature in the past and now has a son, Assemblyman Geo. Wickham, succeeding him as an influential politician. Mr. Wickham made a hurried trip to El Centro, Southern California, while away as another son was very ill down there with influenza.

Miss Eleanor Zimmerman has been over from Calistoga visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Dave Hatton.

ACCIDENT FATAL TO MARTIN MULDRY

Auto Strikes Ex-resident And Death Results.

Martin Muldry, who was in business in Sonoma for many years prior to his removal to San Francisco passed away last Friday. The funeral was held in that city and was attended by many old time friends. Mr. Muldry was a G. A. R. member and a native of New York State. He is survived by a widow and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Granfield, whose husband is prominently connected with the State Labor Bureau.

Mr. Muldry who was past 70 years of age was struck by an automobile while crossing Valencia street in S. F. not long ago and was rendered unconscious. When he came to and was still in a dazed condition as a result of the accident, he was asked his name and his residence, his memory drifted back to Sonoma and he told the emergency hospital attaches that his name was Martin Muldry and that he lived in Sonoma. He also asked that his relative Tom Monahan, of this place be notified. A little later the presence of his wife and daughter living in S. F. were discovered and Mr. Muldry was taken to his home where he lingered until death overtook him.

The Grand Army conducted the funeral Monday and a volley was fired over the grave of one of the old guard by his comrades of former days. Tom Monahan attended the funeral and says the ceremonies were most impressive.

Mrs. Granfield, Mr. Muldry's only daughter is still very ill as a result of the influenza.

EASTERN STAR INSTALLATION NEXT THURSDAY

It has been definitely decided to hold the public installation of the Valley of the Moon Chapter O. E. S. next Thursday night. The beautiful ceremonies and program features will be carried out as planned.

Invitations extended by members to their friends have been renewed and it promises to be a brilliant evening.

Miss Amie Engler went down to San Diego this week where she met a sister of Arthur Drake and they both went out to Camp Kearney to greet the former popular telephone man who had arrived with his contingent of the army from France.

Miss Janet Munfrey is home on a visit.

MOURN AT GRAVE OF SOLDIER SON

Last Sad Rites For Abramo Marcucci Marked By Tributes of Love and Respect.

The Stars and Stripes for which he went to war and died while in the service of his country was draped over the casket of the late Abramo Marcucci on last Saturday morning as his body lay in state in the City Hall preceding the hour of his funeral when friends and neighbors from all over the Sonoma Valley came to pay their last respects to a beloved son and young patriot. Beside the casket in which reposed the handsome and stalwart form of this splendid American youth were handsome floral tributes, one in the replica of his beloved flag, another a pillow of great beauty, symbolic of rest, and the less formal but none the less expressive bouquets called by loving hands and saddened hearts for a lamented hero of our recent war.

Particularly noticeable was the presence of the many friends from Schellville and the south end of the valley at the funeral of this boy esteemed particularly by the neighbors who knew and loved him best. Young friends were there with heads bowed in grief and their elders too and most conspicious was the soldier escort which preceded the remains as the casket was borne from the City Hall to St. Francis church where impressive services were conducted by Rev. T. P. Moran.

Interment was at Mountain cemetery where all that was mortal of Abramo Marcucci was consigned to Mother Earth there to rest in quietude forever more.

This is the second impressive public funeral of a Sonoma soldier boy and a touching coincidence is the fact that at Camp Fremont when Steve Nonella was taken sick, young Marcucci took him to the hospital little dreaming that day, that both were destined to cross the Great Divide and never come back to their old home town.

It proved to be Steve Nonella's fatal illness and just a few short months later taps sounded for the friend and fellow soldier who was laid to rest here on Saturday.

PAGANI WILL APPEAL THE CASE

The suit between A. Rossi vs. F. Pagani over a grape crusher which was installed at the big winery of Pagani at Glen Ellen and which the defendant claimed inefficient and which the plaintiff sought to collect damages for on account of its use during three weeks of the season resulted in a verdict of $690 for Rossi. Mr. Pagani will appeal from Judge Zook's decision so it is announced.

Miss Rose Pagani of the Sonoma Valley Bank was a witness in the case which was on in the Superior court at Santa Rosa this week.

LEWIS' SUIT WENT OVER

Legal Attack On Editors Postponed This Week. Some Light On The Subject.

The libel suit brought by the baseball player, George Lewis against the editors of this newspaper which was to have come up in the justice court this week, was postponed. Judge Lester Small was taken sick with an attack of liver trouble and sent word to the principals in the case of his indisposition. The defense, which is more than anxious to go to the bat and have the court thresh out the matter of the ball player's alleged grievance, were annoyed at the delay in proceedings. Meanwhile news papers in the county and people everywhere are keen to know why Lewis picked on the Index, and that is a little story all by itself. The Santa Rosa Republican makes this pointed comment:

"Just why Lewis chose to vent his spleen on editor and Mrs. Murphy for the publication of the article in their paper, the Sonoma Index-Tribune, cannot be foretold at this time. The San Francisco Bulletin and the San Francisco Daily News published articles of Lewis and his navy career much more caustic than that of the Sonoma paper but Lewis has not started any action against the metropolitan papers so far as has been disclosed."

In order to throw a little light on this inquiry, we quote a news item from our issue of Januarv 4th, which tends to bear out public opinion that Duffy Lewis has no grievance against this newspaper but simply a grudge.

"Sheriff Petray is being widely congratulated on getting Ryan on his staff and for refusing to be bulldosed into keeping the present incumbent (Murray). It is said that the petition, names on which were secured by diverse misrepresentations, praying that incumbent be retained, was flashed on Sheriff elect Petray by a delegation consisting of Mr. Crane and Duffy Lewis of Vallejo upon whose silvery oratory it was hoped to switch the appointment of Joe Ryan. The spellbinders however found the switch locked and sheriff elect Petray reiterated to them that the order in regard to his appointments were all dispatched and the matter long since closed for discussion."

And the next day it snowed. The Index did not back Duffy's man. Can it be possible that this world beater took small town politics so much to heart that he got peeved? It's just possible.

In this connection, it is interesting to record, that last week as Murray was about to descend upon the Index sanctum, to flourish the warrants which Duffy Lewis got out, the former is said to have remarked to some of his cronies, "watch me do it" and they did.

The Index-Tribune as a newspaper gives the news and that is what it is here for. It has had the substantial support of the people of Sonoma Valley since 1884, when baseball and baseball players were still in their infancy. It is not in the business of libeling anybody. We make our columns quite interesting enough by giving the news of the community and adjacent ones and keeping our readers posted on what is going on in social, business and political circles of the locality. If some self-touted reformer, ridiculous politician or notoriety-seeking wise guy suddenly gets in wrong or get themselves into something they want suppressed, we are not responsible for that. Those who do the right thing, and do not attempt to deceive the public have nothing to fear from the Index-Tribune's news columns.

The Index gives the news at all times, free and untrammeled, refuses to be dictated to or to take program from any clique or clan and is doing business in the interest of the people whose support and confidence it values above every thing else. Its editors' conception of the majesty of the law and respect for its statutes, is of a different brand than of those who seek to apply or distort the law for ulterior and selfish purposes. Those sworn to uphold and enforce the law, and who either wink at it, or seek to make its covenants fit their self constituted efforts to pose as saviors of the community or torchlight advertisers of righteousness, are treading on dangerous ground when trifling with the fundamental principals which govern this country and which good citizens are in duty bound to uphold and respect. There is too much of this sort of thing, "against the peace and dignity of the people of the State of California"

As to the baseball player's flyer at a libel suit, his status quo at Mare Island was coined into news by the metropolitan press and used by the Index-Tribune as such. We scooped the big papers on one news feature of the story—Lewis is figuring on going out of baseball into the automobile business at Fresno. He confirmed the report to a Bulletin writer this week, explaining that he thinks he can make more money.

His libel suit has not yet been booked for a date in court.

LAID TO REST ON PEACEFUL HILL

Joseph Robin's Remains Brought Here For Burial Tuesday.

Joseph Robin who was born in Sonoma 55 years ago and who succumbed to pneumonia last Friday at his home in San Francisco was buried here on Tuesday, the funeral taking place from the residence of his aunt, Pauline Robin on Spain St. and thence to St. Francis church where services were held. Many relatives and old time friends were present at the obsequies of deceased and the pall bearers were Messrs John Wagnon, Geo. Breitenbach, Jep Valente, Gus Weyl, Fred Batto and L. H. Green.

Mr. Robin was a gentleman esteemed by all who knew him and for years had been in the employ of the Mc Gilvary Company of S. F. and was engaged in sand blasting one of the big office buildings on Market St., S. F. when taken with the cold which caused his death. His heart had been effected by anxiety for the safety of "Boy" French an idolized nephew over in France with the army and he had complained of not feeling well from time to time.

When stricken with pneumonia that disease reacted on his weak heart and while yet a very sick man he suddenly learned that his beloved nephew was home with the Grizzlies. The joy is thought to have been too much for him in his weakened condition. The emotion caused a sinking spell from which he never rallied.

Robin was a batchelor and lived with his sisters and learned to love the children of the household as his own. He saw them grow up but never ceased to love them and be most devoted to them. Besides his nephew, Alvin "Boy" French, his niece, Mrs. Johnson, and his sisters, Mrs. French, Mrs. Navaritte and Miss Victoria Robin, deceased is survived by two brothers, Adolph Robin of S. F. and Paul Robin of this place.

On the peaceful hillside of Sonoma's Mountain Cemetery rests all that is mortal of this son of pioneer parents. Among out of town friends present at the funeral Tuesday were Henry Faure, Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Molly Weyl of San Francisco.

Glove Co. Directors Vote To Continue Sonoma Shop

MR. RALPH RAYMOND OFFICIALLY CONFIRMS GOOD NEWS OF INDUSTRY'S RESUMING

At a meeting of the California Glove Company directors in Napa this week, it was definitely decided to continue the operation of the Sonoma branch of the big industrial plant and in a few weeks, or possibly much sooner, the Masonic building will again be the scene of much activity.

Mr. Ralph Raymond in an interview with the Index-Tribune yesterday stated positively that the sewing department will resume shortly and that most likely the cutting department help would be put back to work also. He explained that much readjustment in the business and mechanical operations of the factory had been necessary in the period of transition since the war's close, but that everything was getting back on a normal basis, with evidence of decided recognition ofNapa gloves and the ability of the California Glove Company to turn out high grade goods.

The work done in Sonoma's factory last year was on army mitts but the new contracts to be turned out are working and driving gloves.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan who will continue to have charge of the sewing department have returned to Sonoma and are being warmly welcomed.

The entire community will be more than pleased to hear of the Glove Company's decision to keep the wheels of industry moving in Sonoma. Employment was given to many of our people and the company put much money into circulation here which quickened every line of business and gave the town the air of prosperity which only pay rolls can give.

A delegation of Sonoma's citizens made a special trip to Napa recently to prevail on the glove company to maintain the Sonoma branch if possible and the attitude of our people had its influence with the directors decision to resume the pleasant relations which have existed between the company and our city.

PLAY BALL! THE SEASON STARTS!

The baseball game at Boyes Park last Sunday between El Verano and Caliente resulted in the victory of the latter team. The winning team was composed of:

Knudson, Perkins, J. Stevens, L. Perkins, Schell, Fober, Farrell, G. Stevens and Pasquale.

"Some game" said the fans.

The pony truck of a locomotive on the Northwestern line, near the Hearst vineyard, opposite the Sonoma State Home, jumped the track Sunday, derailing two box cars. No one was hurt and the damage was slight, but traffic over the line was delayed until the derailed cars could be straightened up. The passenger train finally went around to Glen Ellen via the Southern Pacific tracks.

The Whys and Wherefores Of a Libel Suit

TO RULE OR RUIN is the stock in trade method of trouble making reformers whose opinions or orders must be accepted else they seek to intimidate or put out of business those who oppose them. This is the exact situation which the Index-Tribune has dealt with for some years past, but long ago the hypocritical pretenders of righteousness learned that this newspaper could not be handled nor would we countenance methods employed by professional reformers and their ilk.

The Index-Tribune has steadfastly held to the policy of a square deal and has not hesitated to expose those who sought to deny a square deal to their fellow citizens nor to unmask pretenders when they sought to pose as paragons of virtue and champions of right, when as a matter of fact, they were false alarms or actual hypocrites. The Index-Tribune has therefore been a thorn in the flesh of these charlatans and their sympathizers and frequent have been attempts at intimidation and coercion.

The libel suit filed last week against this newspaper was for this purpose and no other. Henchmen of reformers who have been shown up in their true colors and a sore-headed office seeker are back of a ball player who alleges that his reputation was damaged by the Index although the metropolitan press lambasted him woefully some weeks previous and the subject was commonly discussed everywhere before reference to it was made in these columns. It was plain however why some of the base ball player's intimates sought to make the Index-Tribune the goat. The once gallant sport fell for that like he did for other stuff they pulled off through him and the suit which he now sponsors is plainly more of a satisfaction to the peevish politician, disgruntled office seeker and vituperative "drys" than to the principal. With the hoped-for coming of the drys' prohibition regime, with its countless necessary detectives and spies to enforce curtailment of liberty and freedom, the presence of a fearless newspaper, opposed to these methods, and pledged to fight for democracy's true principles and rights of the people, is more than ever to be feared by the whip-cracking aspirants to dry honors and those who do their bidding.

Suits or no suits, the Index-Tribune will never swerve from its duty to the public which will at all times and under all circumstances, be put in possession of facts concerning hypocrites and pretenders who pose for political or less evident purposes and seek to curry favor with the people and impose upon the unwary.

East Fights Prohibition

FROM THE COLUMNS of the Boston Globe of January 15th, we glean that the people of the city of culture and long headed thinkers, are not swallowing the bone-dry kultur of National Prohibition without vigorous protest, and reaction against the apparent victory won in Massachusetts by prohibition boosters is apparent.

The labor unions of New Hampshire have united to make a demand upon their Legislature, legalizing light wines, cider and beer.

Boston papers are printing the following appeal to the people of Massachusetts in an attractive display advertisement entitled "Will America Violate a Promise To Her Defenders?" the text of which is as follows;

"A bill to rescind and abrogate the vote of the Massachusetts legislature of last year ratifying the National Prohibition amendment has just been introduced by Charles S. Rackemann—one of that state's most prominent citizens. He feels that the vote of last year was unduly influenced by war conditions and the National Prohibitionists' argument—since exploded—that "the war could not be won without National Prohibition."

"Similar bills to rescind former votes will be introduced into the legislatures that have temporarily accepted the amendment. The public will be heard on the question unhindered by war conditions. America does not want drastic war-time legislation to govern her peaceful activities.

"If there were no other reason for killing National Prohibition, the thought that America—through National Prohibition—would be breaking her promise to her gallant defenders should put every patriotic citizen and conscientious legislator on the line against ratification of the National Amendment.

"We sent our boys across the danger-infested seas to fight for the "freedom of the world." Nearly two million men were in France, and there were five times as many ready to go. They stopped the Huns at Chateau-Thierry, and won the war. Is the freedom for which they fought to be taken away from them?

"Ninety per cent of our boys in uniform are opposed to National Prohibition. Nine out of every ten returning soldiers openly express themselves as against it. Our Army was brave enough, moral enough, and dependable enough to stop the German hordes on the way to Paris, but the National Prohibitionists say they cannot be trusted to drink a glass of beer or wine.

Did your boy go to France? Was he good enough to offer his life for his country? Can you trust him? Then why can't America trust him? Why is he not allowed to express himself upon the most drastic attack against personal liberty ever suggested in the history of republics? Is this the democracy for which he fought?"

A LADY MISSIONARY in China deplores the coming of the breweries to ruin the Clinese, which she says are not now a drinking people. Well in our opinion its this way, if the millions who inhabit China can take on any of the pep and ingenuity of America directly or indirectly, from the invasion of that country by the progressive brewer and his up to date equipment, or can gain any of the efficiency which characterized Germany's preparations for one of the greatest wars of the ages through cultivating acquaintance with lager or other brews, it is going to make China a real country where hitherto it has been asleep for centuries and then some. If on the other hand, the invasion of the brewers art and the effect of drinking is going in time to furnish the population with a minority of burned-out stomachs and dyspeptic Chinks, who, tired of excess and over-indulgence, will begin to rave over prohibition and stampede a deluded following into fanaticism, the Chinese are better off in blissful ignorance of drink and its political American aftermath.

FRED HEGGIE ACCEPTS POSITION

Young Farmer With U. C. Farm Training Now In Change of Hog Raising on Big Estate in Butte Co.

Frederick Heggie, twenty year old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Heggie of this valley, has accepted the position of foreman of the big hog raising department on the Parrott Grant in Butte County. The ranch comprises 18,000 acres along the Sacramento river and about 7000 acres of sheep pasture All feed for stock is raised for the use of the ranch on the rich acreage and the hog department is one of the big assets Young Heggie will have charge of 90 head of brood sows and expects to turn over about three or four thousand pigs each year. He has made good on his own account and has shown marked ability in stock raising and farm management. He is a clean cut, energetic and very likeable young fellow and his many Sonoma friends predict that he will make a record to be proud of in his new position.

The superintendent of the ranch is G. A. Waugh who was superintendent of the Rudolph Spreckels ranch, Sobre Vista some 11 years ago so Heggie will not be entirely among strangers.

BOYES FIRE CHIEF MEETS WITH AN ACCIDENT

W. B. Cause, Chief of the Boyes Springs Fire Department met with a painful and serious accident Friday when he slipped on a large rock and in falling fractured his right foot. Two small bones were broken and the attending surgeon, Dr. Hays, also found that the Chief had a badly sprained ankle.

It will be some weeks before the gallant fireman will be on deck and he is meanwhile much exercised lest the little Red Devil engine will put one over on him while he is laid up. Good luck and a speedy recovery George!

HIGH COST OF LIVING CONSIDERATION FOR ORPHANS

The Sonoma County Probation and the Sonoma County Social Service Commission and others interested in aid for half orphans will be glad to know that the plan now before the legislature is to raise the allowance of state aid for orphans to ten dollars instead of six dollars and a half and eight and a quarter as at present.

This step has been decided upon by the State Board of Control with legislative assistance in passing the measure. The sum heretofore paid is too little when the advanced cost of every thing is taken into consideration. Long since the aid in this county realized that the allowance was too small. They will be glad to learn of the decision to allow more.

Wm. C. Hackmeir special agent and adjuster for the Boston Insurance Company was in town Thursday on business for the substantial concern which he represents. He reports business good and getting back to a normal basis. Hack is known to many of our residents and always gets a cordial greeting here. W. L. Murphy is the local agent for Mr. Hackmeir's Company.

THAT AVOIRDUPOIS CLUB

Sonoma has an Avoirdupois Club. Whats the idea? ,

* * * * *

Well its the child of the brain of Sonoma's legal light and colorful sponsor of cottages at Eldridge.

* * * * *

Colonel Robt. A. Poppe, barrister, politician and over-weight.

* * * * *

He has reached that age of vanity when he feels that the lithe and slender.

* * * * *

Is more to be prefered than the portly curves and rotundity of well 'ere middle age.

* * * * *

And as that "nobody loves a fat man" josh was getting him into the cartoon class Bob decided to step out

* * * * *

Just what preliminaries or training preceded the first hike of the club deponents saith not.

* * * * *

But it is said the Presiding Genius communed with the canary birds in his garden while the dew was still on the katy dids.

* * * * *

And actually climbed trees and vaulted fences to say nothing of the rub-downs, gymnastics and flip flops he committed in the privacy of his boudoir in his efforts to discount the fat.

* * * * *

When he had Avoirdupois on the mat and exactly under his thumb.

* * * * *

He announced to a dumbfounded constituency that he planned to hike to Napa.

* * * * *

Was fit and fine and would blaze a trail across the hills that would convince any doubting Thomas or Weary Willy in the vicinity that he had jazz and cylinders that would make "canary cottages" turn green with envy.

And knock the spark plug out of any mechanical device going.

* * * * *

Two braves joined the chief on the hike last Sunday.

* * * * *

Promptly at 7.20 the pace maker, Theodore Keiser and the time keeper, Prof. Prestwood arrived and Col. R. A. was already champing on the bit anxious to be over the hills and far away.

* * * * *

The barrier was sprung! The Avoirdupois Club was off! In just 7 hours they reached the asylum city via Brown's valley.

* * * * *

And though the colonel was mopping his brow, he was still going strong and it said that they made 15 miles without a single gallon of gasoline.

* * * * *

A little bird is responsible for the rumor that they loitered amid the rustic restfulness of Col. Theodore Gier's resort over there and Gier is synonymous with libations.

* * * * *

However far be it from us to insinuate and they were just about to strike out again when a familiar car hove to and who was it but sunny Jim Stonier.

* * * * *

And of course he would not hear to the Colonel and his party walking back otherwise Mr. Poppe declares he would have demonstrated still further that he is still a comer.

* * * * *

And since his demonstration he says he never passes along the streets of Sonoma or thru the corridors of Eldridge or Santa Rosa without hearing some one say Oh boy! and of course he instinctively turns around!

HE USED TO BE A GOOD ONE IN THE DAYS OF RACING

James Anderson, ("Razor Pete") who in 1893 was Foxhall Keene's prize jockey at Jerome Park, New York's famous race course, is in town renewing old acquaintances Anderson is known to horse owners all over the United States and once in a while gets around to this valley where he entertains high regard for Joe Ryan, the Ashe family and other old time friends. "Pete" was one of a famous battery of colored riders which included favorites like McLain, Shorn, Insing, Jasper Madison, Felix Carr, "Long Shot" Conley and boys of that class. He first got into the game in 1886 and followed it very successfully for many years.

He is credited with having made several fortunes on the turf which has enabled him to provide well for his mother and to keep enough 'kale' to take care of his matrimonial aspirations which, by the way, now look very promising.

Foxhall Keene, whose horse, Domino, won $260,000 one season, credited his luck to this boy and he also rode such famous mounts as Irish Reel, Hornpipe, St. Lennox, Carston, etc. At the old Bay District track in San Francisco, "Pete" raced under the colors of L. J. Rose, and brought home several of the famous Stanford horses to victory. Fairy, Comrade and Ricco were some of his favorites

Pete is a good scout, and likes to talk of the good old days when he came down the home stretch with the crowds in the paddock and grand stand, wildly enthusiastic, but best of all he likes to talk about his heart palpitating for the lady up in Sacramento, where he hopes wedding bells will ring out "for me and my gal." Pete is as white as you make 'em when they're black.

JACK FORD'S CLIENTS INVEST $20,000 IN LIBERTY BONDS

The first annual account of Agnes J. Guldager, Gertie McDonnell and James J .Carrol, as guardians of the property of their father, Patrick Carroll, an aged and infirm citizen of Sonoma county, have filed in the superior court by attorney J. W. Ford, their first annual account, which shows the estate to be worth $195,375.68. Expenditures of $5626.12 are credited to the guardians, and the balance of money and property in the hands of the guardians amounts to $189,749.55, of which the realty is valued at $114,037.50, the rest being in approved securities and gilt-edged investments, including a large block of stock in the Dairyman's Bank at Valley Ford. The estate has invested $20,000 in United States Liberty Loan Bonds.

SONOMA'S BROOM INDUSTRY

Mayor Dal Poggetto, when not engaged in pondering over problems of civic government may be found bussily engaged in practicing the art of broom making at which he is an expert. He has lately received a consignment of broom straw and is making up about 150 of his extra fine sweeps which all find ready sale.

One of the most interesting brooms on hand is one made from broom straw grown on our historic plaza The willow used for binding is also Sonoma grown. The industry is a decidely promising one and the mayor is to be amply protected by patent rights. The Mayor's friends declare that through his connection with the broom business he is bound to make a clean sweep of votes any time he runs for office.

GRAPE GROWERS TO FIGHT ACTION

Drastic National Prohibition Law To Be Legally Combatted.

Victor Piezzi, presided over a representative gathering of about 130 vineyardists and wine men Friday afternoon in the supervisors' chambers at the courthouse and former Senator Walter F. Price was chosen as secretary. The utmost unanimity prevailed and stirring speeches were made by President Piezzi, Senator Price, Supervisor Cunningham, Sheridan Peterson and Supervisor J. Harry Weise. It was unanimously voted to send the following telegram to Hon. Theodore A. Bell, who is general counsel for the grape men in their fight against prohibition.

"Large and enthusiastic meeting of grape growers and wine makers was held in the courthouse today. They unanimously endorsed your legal efforts in their behalf and passed a resolution pledging this territory on behalf of the grape growers and wine makers to respond to the signing of contracts to pay the quota for this territory. Many signed a general contract, awaiting individual contract. Meetings are to be called in Healdsburg and elsewhere at once. Committees were appointed to make personal solicitation for signing contracts. Send a large supply of contracts for grape growers. Fifty signatures more to follow."

$200,000 is said to have been pledged to make war on the iniquitous legislation put through to destroy the life earnings and vineyards of the many thrifty farmers engaged in grape growing in this and other famous wine counties.

Chairman Piezzi named Louis Knude of the Wildwood Vinevards and one of the most prominent viticulturists of this valley as committeeman for Sonoma.

JAMES McELNEY NOW SETTLED IN UP-TO-DATE DRUG STORE

James McElney, who has removed the Model Pharmacy to the old Post office building, is now completely settled in his up-to-date new store, on the corner of Napa and First Street East. The location is a splendid one and the store is not only attractive, but is equipped for better service and enables Mr. McElney to display his wares to greater advantage and to ensure the maximum of efficiency in the compounding of prescriptions. A model laboratory and up-to-date cabinet features in the apothecary department make the new quarters of especial advantage.

Through careful attention to the details of his profession and courteous treatment of the public, Mr. McElney has built up a fine business and in line with his policy of "quality" service will now be in a position to better than ever serve his customers.

If you have not already done so, you are invited to call in and inspect the new home of the Model Pharmacy

The cabinet work was under the supervision of Al Warriner.

HIGHWAY LINK TO BE COMPLETED AT ONCE

That a live wire is now on the State Highway Commission is indicated by the following item showing the interest in the Ignacio piece of road by the new commissioner Emmet Phillips of Sacramento. He is a newspaper man.

"No more delays in the completion of the state highway between Burdell's and Ignacio will be tolerated. The state is preparing to take over and complete the work at the earliest possible moment. State Highway Commissioner Emmet Phillips of Sacramento wrote and so informed a friend here yesterday. This will be good news to the people of Humbolt, Mendocino, Sonoma and Marin counties who have been shut off from direct automobile communication with Sausalito for months and who have been loud in their complaints regarding the way they have been treated.

Last week Commissioners Phillips and Whitmore visited this county and made a trip south over the highway from Petaluma south. They were greatly surprised at the conditions encountered. Commissioner Phillips brands them as "most deplorable," and blames the commission for having been too tolerant in the matter of granting extensions to the contractors. "You may rest assured that there will be an end put to this at once, and that we will undertake the work ourselves and ruch it to completion at the earliest possible day," says Commissioner Phillips in his letter. Phillips is a new man on the board, and is known as a hustler and a man of fine executive ability. When he says he will do a thing, he does it.

A telephone message from Novato yesterday said work on the highway at that point is now under full swing operations having been carried on all day Sunday in order to take advantage of the good weather.

John Valente underwent a successful operation in San Francisco last week for a growth in his throat. Jack says the throat specialists have a new system to grab their fees quick. He declares that while under the anaesthetic, a bill for the job went forward and a check was mailed to the medico by his sister, whom he had instructed to tend to the arrangements. The patient made quick recovery, but he is wondering what would have happened had "the kale" been delayed.

HOPS ARE HOPS THESE DAYS

Ben Ballard sold 500 bales of Sacramento hops yesterday for 34 cents, the highest price paid growers this year as far as known here.

At the same time several hundred bales of Sonoma's changed hands among dealers in Santa Rosa and San Francisco at prices ranging from 38 to 39 cents per pound, a record price for Sonoma this year.

Milton Wasserman stated in discussing the deals of the day that hop growers could now get their own prices owing to the heavy demand from Europe for hops and those who had crops in prospect were extremely fortunate.

Buyers are now offering 26 cents per pound on contract for the 1919 crop, according to Mr. Wasserman, with every prospect that those who hold out will get a much better price for their crop. The small acreage compartively speaking, in the United States, with none at all abroad, with the big demand which will exist, now that the war is closed, means top-notch prices throughout the season he says.

Dr. and Mrs. Parramore of Boyes Springs have been spending the winter in Berkeley and for a time were in quarantine on account of influenza in the household of their relatives there.

Now is the time to have that engine overhauled at the Sonoma Machine Works.

H. J. DUNN IS HORTICULTURAL INSPECTOR

Mr. Harry Dunn, the well known orchardist, has succeeded Thos. Johnson as horticultural expert and inspector for this locality. The selection is an excellent one as Dunn is not only a highly succesful fruit grower but is also a conscientious and energetic citizen. Some of the finest prunes and other fruits seen last season were grown on the Dunn ranch.

His duties will be to inspect all nursery stock coming into the valley.

Ralph Ring who is in the Navy has arrived in Manila and does not expect to complete his cruise and be discharged from the service until six months after the signing of the peace terms.

Miss Henrietta Weber was up last Saturday and Sunday visiting her sister, Mrs. Grover Rubke. The new purchasers have taken possession of the Rubke property and the Vineburg station agent and his family have moved to the Schumacher place where they will reside for the present

Mrs. Dora Stofen came up from Berkeley to visit old friends here Wednesday.

Miss Myrtle Hardy returned from the city last Saturday evening.

Miss Alice Trudgen has recovered from the "flu". Her father and brother were also quite ill.

COUPLE WED AT HIGH NOON

French Church in San Francisco Scene of Nuptials of Antoinette Froment and Fred Mazoue, Sunday

The French Church, Notre Damme des Victorie, San Francisco, was the scene of a pretty wedding last Sunday when at high noon in the presence of a large party of friends and relatives, Miss Antoinette Froment of this place became the bride of Fred Mazoue, a young aviator but recently returned from Kelly Field, Texas. The friendship and romance which terminated in the happy event began here in the Valley of the Moon where young Mazoue formerly spent his vacations. He is the son of a former prominent business man of San Francisco and Santa Cruz and is an expert electrician. His petite and vivacious bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment, esteemed residents of Sonoma valley and her talent as a singer and engaging personality endeared her to a large circle of friends all of whom will unite in congratulating her.

Father Bian officiated at the marriage ceremony and the attendants of the fair bride who wore a chic traveling gown of taupe color with a becoming hat to match were a sister Miss Eugene Froment and Jennie Mazoue while the best men were Ralph Busby and Emile Mazoue a brother of the groom. The bride's bouquet and those of her maids of honor were exquisite arrangements of rare roses.

After the services at the church the bridal party motored to Bergez-Frank Poodle Dog restaurant where a banquet room had been engaged for the elaborate wedding breakfast. After the fine repast and happy toasts to bride and groom the young couple were driven to the depot where they took a train to Santa Cruz and Monterey to spend their honeymoon.

They will reside in San Francisco where the groom has a position at the Union Iron Works.

He celebrated his 80th birthday last September 6 and made several visits to his brother in California, when the late Mr. Cragin resided in San Jose. There were originally four brothers, and the sole survivor now is William P. Cragin a veteran of the Civil war, who resides in Hoquiam, Washington.

VINEBURG

Philip Bill Sr., the heavy built, genial foreman of the Gnndlach-Bundschu Wine Co., has been a very busy man this week and with the assistance of his able force of workmen, has received and shipped a large quantity of wine. 5 cars were shipped and 4 cars of puncheons and one tank car containing 10,000 gallons were received but little things like that do not worry Philip.

From all present indications the chicken industry is sure taking a boom that will place it soon on the same footing in this valley as it had before the war. On Tuesday last 2 cars of feed arrived at Batto's spur containing 56 tons among which were 700 sacks of Surelay Egg Food.

Miss Myrtle Hardy was the guest of Bay City friends on Friday and Saturday of last week.

Miss Helen Forni has returned from her visit to Petaluma where she was the guest of her grand parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto motored to Petaluma on Wednesday last.

Mr. Walter Murphy, business manager of the Sonoma Index-Tribune the pioneer and only liberal paper published in Sonoma Valley was exchanging greetings with his Vineburg friends on Monday last.

James Festino for many years a well known citizen of Vineburg spent several days this week looking after his real estate affairs in S. F.

Mayor Chas. Dal Pogetto of Sonoma transacted business at Batto's spur on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto, Mrs. Chas. Mc Devitt, Misses Adele Andrieux, Louise Batto and pretty little Elizabeth Mc Devitt motored to Santa Rosa on Thursday afternoon.

Most all the orchardists and vineyard men in this vicinity are busily engaged in pruning their orchards and vineyards.

1918 PRICES FOR APPLES GOOD

Sonoma Valley Apple Growers Plan For Another Active Season.

The 1918 apple season in Sonoma valley was marked by the organization of the growers and the selling of the crop through the Sebastopol Apple Growers Union. The good prices brought are gleaned from the following article taken from the Sebastopol Times:

President Edson C. Merritt has some interesting figures dealing with the prices obtained for the Sonoma Valley Apple Growers' Union product for the past season.

The Sebastopol Apple Growers' Union are the selling agents for the Sonoma Valley Growers, who were organized for the season of 1918.

It is needless to state that both institutions are well satisfied with the outcome of their first season's co-operation as the following figures will show:

Varieties—	F. 4	F. 4½	B. 4	B. 4½

SUES SONOMA VISTA CO FOR BIG REDWOOD TANK

Attorney H. W. A. Weske, on behalf of C. A. Bergstrom, operating as the Sonoma Lumber Company, brought suit late Monday afternoon against Wm. Gowan and Sonoma Vista Land Company for $434.85, being the cost of a 10,000 gallon redwood tank and frame, with materials for same, which is alleged to be due and unpaid. The Sonoma Vista Water Co. is owned by the first-named corporation and the equipment was used in the water system of the summer colony dwelling at Sonoma Vista.

Gowan was contractor for the erection of the tank and frame and it is claimed that the company has not paid the stipulated price for the improvement. Legal redress is sought to compel payment of the money alleged to be due.
